Dearest Darling,

This is the first Halloween rite out of sight that we haven't been together, honey. Sure hope we can be together next year, and all the rest of them.

Do you remember the year you were living in Detroit, and we went to that little cafe with Barney and Ann? And the year Isabel had the party at her house. It's fun just reliving those times.

I'll bet it seems kind of nice to be back in Elyria again, doesn't it, sweetie?

Darling, I am a very lucky guy to be married to such a sweet little girl. It's tough to be away from you, but it's going to be so wonderful when we can be together again. This separation will just be a memory, and at that will try not remember it too often.

So long for now, honey. I'll dream of you. All my love, and hundreds of kisses,

Your Own,
Jack
